

Corridors of Madness

Uriah Heep

I'm looking out over the water
Feeling the cold in my bones
A terrible nightmare growing around me
I never felt so alone
I'm starting to see my reflection
A whisper of light in the sky
The dark water called me, pulling me in
Down where the old spirits lie

I look at the moon as it flickers
Through the waves like a lost memory
I'm losing control as the spirits are laughing
Singing their dark harmony
They try everything to destroy me
They're drawing me into the game
Question or answer, will I live or die
Convincing me I am insane

Ah ah ah...
In the corridors of madness
Ah ah ah...
They go on and on and on
Ah ah ah...
They say they want to take me home

They live in the world under water
Maybe we end up this way
But I'm still alive and I'm frightened to death
The fear of watery grave
I'm reaching out into the silence
Begging for help to appear
The whisper of light that was there in the sky
Pulling me into the clear

So don't look out over the water
You never know what you will find
You could be saved or you could be lost
May even go out of your mind
So now when you see your reflection
As spirits are tempting you in Calling your name like a lamb to the slaughter
Fearing the pendulum swing
