

Flyin' High

Uriah Heep

I'm flyin' high
And I know the reason why
'Cause the wind of change
Has blown my way
And you love me
As much today as I love you
Honey, as I love you

I used to think
That love was all so strange
There was something
That I used to ease the pain
Though at times
It seems it hurts to touch
It's never gonna hurt
As much as no love at all
Honey, as no love at all

Flyin' high, it's a crazy feeling
Flyin' high, 'cause
I've learnt the meaning of love
Flyin' high it's a crazy feeling
Flyin' high 'cause I believe in love

I'm flyin' high
And I guess I know the reason why
'Cause the wind of change
Has blown my way
And you love me
As much today as I love you
Honey, as I love you

I'm flyin high
I'm flyin', flyin', flyin'
I'm flyin high
And I know the reason
