

Love Stealer

Uriah Heep

She's got an eye on you
There's nowhere to hide
She keeps her motives still
Deep down inside

She shows no mercy, no
She plays it rough
She don't want no money
She just wants to love

Love stealer, raw dealer
Heart breaker, love taker
Yeah yeah...
She walks in the shadows

As she waits for the night
She gets what she's looking for
She knows how to fight
If you see her coming

Then you'd better know
If your love's for the taking
She'll steal the show
She just can't go round there first

Facing the joint
Then she'll move in
And get right to the point
So keep your love locked away

Don't let it show
Or the love stealer will rock you
For more than you'll know
