I got a solid silver reason
I got something you'll never buy
I've spent my life playing rock 'n' roll
I wouldn't tell a lie

Well, if you want to taste the freedom Just let the music take a hold I'm possessed by rock 'n' roll There's a thunder, see it and wonder How to play the game, it's easy

You know, we're gonna live forever You know we're never gonna die You see it's written across the sky tonight I'm gonna tell you why

Because they've covered up the exits We got a spotlight just for you I'm possessed by rock 'n' roll Hear me calling, stars are falling Taking me away

Stand up, shout it out I'm possessed by rock 'n' roll Stand up, shout it out Sell your soul

Stand up, shout it out Let the music take a hold Stand up, shout it out Rock 'n' roll

Can't you feel we're gettin' stronger gettin' stronger every day There ain't nothing gonna stop us Oh, there ain't no way

It's like a rolling ball of thunder You know, it's never gonna stop You know, it's gonna drag you under See me soaring, thunders roaring Things afraid again

Stand up, shout it out I'm possessed by rock 'n' roll Stand up, shout it out Sell your soul

Stand up, shout it out Let the music take a hold Stand up, shout it out Rock 'n' roll

I got a solid silver reason
I got something you'll never buy
I've spent my life with rock 'n' roll
Oh no, would I lie?

But if you want to taste the freedom Just let the music take a hold I'm possessed by rock 'n' roll There's a thunder, see it and wonder How to play the game, it's easy

It's gonna drag you under
Gonna take your heart and soul
You gotta stand up
You gotta shout, shout, shout, shout it out
