

Sweet Talk

Uriah Heep

I see your face in
The magazine stand
I wanna hold you in the palm
Of my hand
I love everything about you

You're such a long way away
Your sweet talk
Ain't enough for me
I may be deaf, but you're
Too blind to see
You're gonna break my bones
With your feminine tones
But I don't wanna hear

Your sweet talk tonight
Not again tonight
When I call tonight
Don't wanna hear your
Sweet talk tonight
I hear your voice on the radio
It's gettin' so bad I don't know
Which way to go
Why don't you wake up girl

You're such a long way away
Your sweet talk ain't enough
You see
I need a woman
Who's a woman to me
You're gonna break my bones
With those feminine tones
But I don't wanna hear

Oh, I don't wanna hear it
Not tonight
You're gonna break my bones
With your feminine tones
But I don't wanna hear

None of that sweet talk tonight
Oh, not again tonight
When I call tonight
Sweet talk tonight
Not again tonight
When I call tonight
Don't wanna hear your sweet talk
