

September

Urma

Don't tell me that you need me now
Divided heart is all we have
A lot of dust is all I can give
Can't find a meaning for this end...

Release your day, don't keep it longer
A better one stays in the line
Can't kill the smile that lies behind me
It's time to run

Somehow I'll keep on living
Alive
To feel september days
Somehow I'll keep on runing
Away...from you.

You'd rather hide yourself away
Just take your chance when I am not there
Can't kill the smile that lies behind me
No place to run

Somehow I'll keep on living
Alive
To feel september days
Somehow I'll keep on runing
Away...from you.

I'm stuck in a moment, which keeps us alive
I'll dream of september, don't wake me up
I'm trapped in a place, where we do belong
I dream of a lifetime.
I'll be reaching home soon, find my little lost child
I'll be reaching home soon
I'm allready home in my heart
I'll be reaching home soon.
