

The End If Not Your All

Us, From Outside

Its easy to be bitter
Now that your out of this frame
With all these unclear different choices.
Like enemies we cause ourselves so much pain.
Have you noticed we laughed off the blame?

[Chorus:]

So we're safe, we will stray.
We'll learn to cross out our names.
We will take separate doors and go our different ways.

And you were wounded some way.
I know that you were wounded

And its always someone else's matter
As we don't bother with anybody else's feelings,
Cause we know at the end we are all on our own.

[Chorus]

Once in a lifetime you'll find that someone (so it's over)
And I chose to let you go (and you've got no one)

Once in a lifetime you'll find that someone (she looks over)
And I chose to let you go (and said she's done)

[Chorus]

Once in a lifetime, now she's so done (now it's over)
