Recognise And Realise

(chorus) Recognise and realise We all need peace Recognise and realise I spit lingo that's universal Each verse'll convey Zimbabwe to Afghanistan in reversal Burst through racial barriers, Capricorn through Sagittarius From various areas mingle Understood 'cos I'm bilingual In every country K makin' the honey's jingle with what I sprinkle on a single now Throw a hand in the air and keep it high, symbolising the vibe togeth er With sound that unifies humanity as family regardless of nationality I see black and white side by side with Swede and Japanese Partyin' hardy to the rhythm Displayin' universal unification has been risen, yeah (chorus) From NY to the most high, mountains of Bangladesh Me and my clique we speak peace But I believe we gots to unify my peeps first, then embrace the world at it's worst Through your town by the speed of sound How can we work this, no prejudice Debate amongst skin tones and origins, begin again I'm sendin' 'em a memorandum, enough to inform 'em Through jazz loops I warn 'em We got to come together from the como estas to the arriverderci I bet they felt me Commercial or underground I bet the sound pounds So clap your hands and give my man from the band a standing ovation i n every nation (chorus) We turn it out without a doubt Shouts to the East coast, West, North and South Rockin' the house without discrimination Every nation under the groove, whether be African or Asian Embracing the sound that makes the world get down Provided for the masses from miles around Find peace of mind and unwind with this rhyme given, combined with rh ythm Makin' y'all refrain from sittin' The place is here, get up out ya chair To where no worries and party like ya just don't care Music the universal language we all understanding What it's aim is will forever entertain us Tištěnozwww.txp.cz Sponzor: www.srovnavac.cz - šetříme na pojištění!