The virtuoso untold impresario of sound Composed from within enclosed now unfolds, toes tap as

Adapting to patterns of rhythm Diggin' what the soul brother givin' em
Let your mind connect to the injection in your ear As the architects flex on his set, skills of inner depth with no slack Observe a brothers essence who in fact been in existence before rap
The soul brother
For years officially instilling original fulfilling rhythmical joints to listen to Non individual abettor assisting whomsoever, clever Wack this brother? Never!
Bodies sway when he plays, since the days of way back Still today he'll lay tracks that's fat when weighed in, chill

Give 'em a taste hit 'em and lace 'em with the rhythm (chorus)
Soul Brother's on the scene
The soul brother
We combine a rocket for your mind, one time a true mastermind
Soul Brother's on the scene
The soul brother, one of a kind, no other Genuine, out of line, keepin' the rhythm on time
The soul brother, no other keeps ya movin' Groovin' to a tune there ain't a sound more soothin' Oozin' over vibin' he's supplyin', find him chart-climbing Proving two men who ain't losin' the game, instead sustain endeavour
Whenever we're together soul flows til tunes close sever
Recognise the steel as concealed thoughts unveil Then reveal what you feel from within, peel KCB is who this, new to this is ludicrous I'm true to this game, retain Who is the brother of soul, solely?
No, in reality many be being, though no-one and only
Bodies sway when he plays, since the days of way back Still today he'll lay tracks that's fat when weighed
in, chill

(chorus)
The innovator, creator of audio gold Kept on your toes by what he has composed, talent exposed Technics co-ordinated with precision

Catering to whatever flav you're listening to Bodies sway when he plays, since the days of way back Still today he'll lay tracks that's fat when weighed
in, chill
