

We got off the plane wasted again.
We drank all the wine on the way to Japan.
Motoki dropped us off at Tokyo hands.
No show tonight but we got us a plan.
We're all going out tonight in case you want to know.
Raise your glass with me forget the heartache.
We're all going out tonight in case you want to know we'll meet you there.
Sydney town, at the bar with the gang.
Drinking whiskey whenever we can.
Passed out again and not feeling so well.
Gordy and Nigel trashed the hotel.
You know home is so far away.
