Just Friends

Useless ID

it's good night, it was nice there are so many things i would like to tell you feelings caved for a while now a force and shield is over you and we both know that it is true i'm falling for you once again but it's hard when we are just friends you think it was such a right thing what has been going on half a year still sincere to someone i can't hear about you're doing fine with someone else it ain't the same as being in love but i can try it for a change still it's hard when we are just friends a blast of affection when you're around talking for hours, it's obvious that a match was found
