

Oh, My Guard

Useless ID

is this time the last one that you will hear from me my friend these words don't seem to pay off in shoes of hostility it could be wrong what i'm saying, the real test hasn't arrived i know if we break connections, it's only a matter of time till you find your way out of his life, back into mine for day i can't wait long so be prepared i might not be home when you drop by to say

"hi, i missed you", oh my guard broken hearts and mislead feelings aren't welcome to this venue where i live in now i miss you
