

Lessons for the Lover

Usher

Turn The Lights On

How could someone hurt you, but still make you feel so good?
Hollar, scream and curse and you stand there and let them do it
Just cause he give you pain, that don't mean he ain't the one
Fuck you out your brain you'll smiling when he's done

So my advice would be no don't leave don't go so easy
Just let that argument turn you on
It's worthy

And these are the lesson learned by lovers
These are the reasons we make love
There's no exception one day we gotta look each other in the eye
You learn all these lesson when you're in love
A lesson for the lover, for the lover (2x)

So hard to imagine living life without them there
Cause now you're so caught up in the passion
But this shit is beyond compare, yeah
Cause don't he make your heart beat, beat, beat like a drum
You fought hard but think about how hard you come

So my advice would be no don't leave don't go so easy
Just let that argument turn you on

And these are the lesson learned by lovers
These are the reasons we make love
There's no exception one day we gotta look each other in the eye
You learn all these lesson when you're in love
A lesson for the lover, for the lover
A lesson for, a lesson the lover, for the lover

No one wants to be fighting
All day long, all night long
So we'll just scream till we start making love
And this time goes on we'll feeling
Okay babe alright love
And we'll forget about it in the morning

And these are the lesson learned by lovers
These are the reasons we make love
There's no exception, one day
We gotta look each other in the eye
You learn all these lessons when you're in love
A lesson for the lover, for the lover (2x)
