Somebody tell me, why do people stay in situations that 'll never work?
And bout you wanna leave and you can't wait to get even,
but deep inside it really hurts.
You never should've ever got in the mix,
you never understand 'till you go thru it.
All the right things to say, the wrong things to do.
Why you out and tryin to pick and choose?

You should be looking for a T.T.P.
Now that I know the difference
that's all I'm tryin to be with.
Somebody that keeps it all and together now (hey)
I'm living better since I found the total package.
(2x)

I used to be young and dumb and always wanted to run in the streets cause I thought that was where it was at.
But it wasn't, all it did was leave a brother in the cold
Nowhere to go,
I caught myself slippin,
thinkin I was the lick.
I was trippin,
tryin to come tip to tip
I thought it was the way to be happy, untill somebody took time to tell me yeah

when you gotta stop what you doing, start looking for the one.
