

Aces

Vain

Playing poker hard to make a living
Sometimes are all take
But it ain't no it ain't no giving
Baby no no
Between your legs I know what I'm playing for
So you see my excitement grow
Oh baby watch it grow

My luck is changing
Do you believe it

I'm holding all the aces in my hands that's right
I see your poker faces
I'm a bad motherfucker tonight
I'm holding all the aces in my hands that's right
I see your poker faces stop me stop me tonight
When you're holding all the aces
When you're holding all the aces

I got em, aces

You know baby, I play to win

I'm wearing leather head to toe
Got me a mission and my mission is to rock and roll
I thought I'd let you know

My luck is changing
Do you believe it

I'm holding all the aces in my hands that's right
I see your poker faces
I'm a bad motherfucker tonight
I'm holding all the aces in my hands that's right
I see your poker faces stop stop me tonight
When you're holding all the aces
When you're holding all the aces
I've got them...aces

That's right baby
I got the Hearts, Diamonds, Clubs, Spades and your ass
