

Better Off Alone

Vains of Jenna

So you've roamed your heart
Far away not like the start
Spinnin' in a circle for you

Help I'm drowning in this grief
Am I better off alone than you with me?

What ever happened to the morning?
What ever happened to the setting of the sun?
Will you ever now?
You dug yourself a lonely desert hole
So turn around and catch your wounded soul

While the time slows by
Laughin' silently, no cries
Numbin' all my feelings for you

Taking back my life I'm free
Now I'm better off alone than you with me!

What ever happened to the morning?
What ever happened to the setting of the sun?
Will you ever now?
You dug yourself a lonely desert hole
So turn around and catch your wounded soul

Turn around and catch your soul
Blackened sky for evermore
You dug yourself a lonely hole
