

Enemy in Me

Vains of Jenna

So you're looking for an enemy
You found an enemy in me
You spit the venom but your rattle couldn't make it free
Get rid of the cigarette
If you're serious put your money where your mouth is Freak out with no control
Put your crayon away 'cause this scene is gettin real

Cramped inside your shell
Please break out

Tripped out on violence
Put your trust in every word you say
But you fucked me over anyway
Embrace the silence
'til you tell me where you were before
Give it up, you're twisting my desires to war

Come on slit me with your best lie
In the mind of a blind eye
Forget forgiveness 'cause there's battle and it should be cool

What's the thrill with the sugar, the pill
All that shit you said well it didn't mean a thing no
Strip off and join the show
You got your two middle fingers but I'm waiting with a fist full

Cramped inside your shell
Can't you break out

Tripped out on violence
Put your trust in every word you say
But you fucked me over anyway
Embrace the silence
'til you tell me where you were before
Give it up, you're twisting my desires to war

Try to get in my head
Try to get in my head
Two engines empty and you're heading for destruction

Three too many wanted
Never enough dead...
yeah

Tripped out on violence
Put your trust in every word you say
But you fucked me over anyway
Embrace the silence
'til you tell me where you were before
Give it up you're twisting my desires to war

You're the enemy in me
You're the enemy in me
You're the enemy in me

Three too many

You're the enemy in me
You're the enemy in me

One is never enough...
