

I Belong to Yesterday

Vains of Jenna

This life is not for me tomorrow
This life is not for me today
I wish I took that time to follow
Instead of beggin' you to stay

The world that keeps turnig
I'd like to rewind
We live those moments
That I left behind

Yesterday, I feel a memory
Yesterday, I'm not in a make belive
I can't stand a fake reality
I belong to yesterday

Now every minute last forever
Then every minute slipped away
Words could have kept our hearts together
Regret the words I didn't say

The times that I've wasted
I'd like to redo
We think those moments are coloured in blue

Yesterday, I feel a memory
Yesterday, I'm not in a make believe
I can't stand a fake reality
I belong to yesterday

To tell me what I'm gonna do now
(Just tell me, just tell me)
I'm only half a day away from you
To tell me what I'm gonna do now
(Just tell me, just tell me)
I guess it shows that I'll never heal

Yesterday
I can't stand a fake reality
I belong to yesterday
I feel a memory
Yesterday, I'm not in a make believe
I can't stand a fake reality
I belong to yesterday
