

It's So Easy

Valerie Dore

How can it be so easy?
No one can take you from me,
you will be forever mine.

There's no reason why feelings can come and go so easy.
And as time goes by you live for love, for love
There's no reason why we should be living in the past now Every day you stay in my heart

Sweet pretender
I've got the key to find
True surrender
I'm gonna make you mine

It's so easy now
How can it be so easy?
And tonight
I realize how lucky love came be with you

It's so easy now
How can it be so easy?
And tonight
no one can take you from me
You're forever mine

There's a reason why we two were made for (one) another When you're near I try to be for love, for love Please don't pass me by make up your mind and I won't let you go Don't waste precious time here and now

Sweet pretender
I've got the key to find
True surrender
I'm gonna make you mine

It's so easy now
How can it be so easy?
And tonight
I realize how lucky love came be with you

It's so easy now
How can it be so easy
And tonight
no one can take you from me.
You' re forever mine
