Valient Thorr

The choice is up to you my friend
Cause I ain't ever gonna come back again
Hop on this rocket, gotta get outta town
It looks like the shit is about to go down

Mission control received an urgent message
A faint signal coming from the wreckage
It's still alive!
We gotta take em out!
Heatseeker was designed to make em scream and shout

You don't need a ticket
You know what you need?
And I'm feelin' wicked
Heat seeker is gonna make em all bleed

The choice is up to you my friend
Cause I ain't ever gonna come back again
Hop on this rocket, gotta get outta town
It looks like the shit is about to go down

Heatseekers classified in case you need to know
I take it with me when I go out on patrol
Don't need no coffee
Don't need no coal
This motherfucker runs on rock n' roll

I'll fly all day
I'll fly all night
The size and power of this rocket's outta sight
Don't need no coffee
Don't need no sugar
I'll get some cream when I come over
Don't need no tickets
Don't need no coal
This motherfucker runs on rock n' roll
