Valient Thorr

there's a lime net way up in the cosmos, a giant grid that connects possiblility the choice in life for instant stimulation, is similar to the choice of fate or destiny do your choices affect those around you?
back out cher problems and take a look around connect the dots on yr
current situation, retrace yr steps is the only thing ive found that works.
can u grasp the grid of possibility?
every choice in yr life is one that counts timestreams not a footrace friction causes all the magnets to make dna greeks and romans thought of themselves as the gods!
all their choices now are history technology surpassed the sun universal expansion has hushed the guh-lo-buh.
some people try to live their life and walk all around this land as if we're guided by someone else's hand now that we live on earth, we got responsibility, don't ever trade yr freedom for their security you'll never catch me without a fight there aint a man in the world who can stop our rocknroll you wanna taste of OUR choice? Give it to em!
