

earthly bodies won't live on forever beyond the grave rippers buried in leather we're all tempted by the glory of strangers, we will bask in the sounds of their danger oh! well alright, when the stormstris comes its a box thats filled with light (then it opens up) im not scared, im not scared, im not scared, im not scared but when the box opens up you got 48 hours to solve a puzzle, a riddle, or everything in yr life will expire (you can suck on this) there's no more gettin high, when a riddle comes from the sky, in a box that can destroy us all, what superhuman can we call?

when the stormstris comes (4x)

December 31st, i wake up in an earth girls bed screaming, the vision i saw was horrible, how was a man like me gonna save the world?
Can you believe this horseshit?
They're gonna push the red button!
but the stormstris was pure nature....
All thoses deaths were for nothing. they say the meek will inherit the earth, but what are we going to inherit, what's left?

And i came and i saw the stormstris, stretched out across the horizen, no government force could stop it, no future's gonna come yr way
