Got a little soul The world is a cold, cold place to be Want a little warmth But who's going to save a little warmth for me We know the fire awaits unbelievers All of the sinners the same Girl you and I will die unbelievers bound to the tracks of the train See the snow come down It's coming on down from the highest peak Want a little leaf, but who's going to save a little leaf for me We know the fire awaits unbelievers All of the sinners the same Girl you and I will die unbelievers bound to the tracks of the train I'm not excited But should I be Is this the fate that half of the world has planned for me? I know I love you And you love the sea Wonder if the water contains a little drop little drop for me See the sun go down It's going on down when the night is deep Want a little light but who's going to save a little light for me? We know the fire awaits unbelievers All of the sinners the same Girl you and I will die unbelievers bound to the tracks of the train If I'm born again I know that the world will disagree Want a little grace but who's going to say a little grace for me? We know the fire awaits unbelievers All of the sinners the same Girl you and I will die unbelievers bound to the tracks of the train I'm not excited But should I be Is this the fate that half of the world has planned for me? I know I love you And you love the sea Wonder if the water contains a little drop little drop for me I'm not excited But should I be Is this the fate that half of the world has planned for me? I know I love you And you love the sea
