

Fight for Your Life

Van Canto

Whole world against you? (Fight)
Bad things you've been through? (Fight)
Ignore disbelievers, the so-called achievers
You are just doing it right

You're facing haters? (Fight)
Marooned by traitors? (Fight)
Every morning instead of mourning
Wake up and stand up to fight

And by time this elegy is healing wounds and blinded eyes will see
Lost in eternity banned for all times?
Fight for your life

Are you bound in darkness?
Is it that you miss the light?
Fight for your life
Imagine getting stronger
instead of feeling weak inside
Fight for your life

Betrayed by liars? (Fight)
You're trapped by fires? (Fight)
And you just feel empowered, every hour
Knowing you're just doing right

And by time this threnody is giving life for those who dare to feel creating reality from the inside
Fight for your life

Are you bound in darkness?
Is it that you miss the light?
Fight for your life
Imagine getting stronger
instead of feeling weak inside
Fight for your life

Wipe of all misgivings
knowing you have always tried
Fight for your life
Nevermind convicts
Let your inner hero rise
Fight for your life

Fill your soul with pride
Reminding you to Fight for your life (Fight)

And by time this symphony is getting real, surviving endlessly
You're writing history line by line
Fight for your life

Are you bound in darkness?
Is it that you miss the light?

Fight for your life
Imagine getting stronger
instead of feeling weak inside
Fight for your liffe

Oooh,
knowing you have always tried
Fight for your life
Nevermind convictors
Let your inner hero rise
Fight for your life

We are at your side
Day by day and night by night
Fill your soul with pride
Reminding you to
Fight for your life
FIGHT!
