

Master of the Wind

Van Canto

In the silence of the darkness when all are fast asleep I live inside a dream calling to your spirit As a sail calls the wind, hear the angels sing

Far beyond the sun across the western sky Reach into the blackn ess find a silver line In a voice I whisper a candle in the nig ht We'll carry all our dreams in a single beam of light Close your eyes, look into the dream Winds of change will winds of fortune bring

Fly away to a rainbow in the sky gold is at the end for each of us to find There the road begins where another one will end He re the four winds know who will break and who will bend All to be the master of the wind

Falling stars now light my way My life was written on the wind Clouds above, clouds below High ascend the dreams within

When the wind fills the sky the clouds will move aside And ther e will be the road to all our dreams For any day that stings tw o better days it brings

Nothing is as bad as it seems Close your eyes, look into the dr eam Wins of change will winds of fortune bring

Fly away to a rainbow in the sky gold is at the end for each of us to find There the road begins where another one will end He re the four winds know who will break and who will bend All to be the master of the wind
