Look Away

Van Dyke Parks

We will break bread and we won't wonder why In that great reunion in that by and by Look away, look away, look away, look away

First come first serve will be the president If he had the nerve he'd ask the goverment Look away, look away, look away, look away

Hear the train comin, you all get on board Let the population be of one accord Look away, look away, look awooo