

The Four Mills Brothers

Van Dyke Parks

Among the singers on the moving screen
The negroes are the best ever heard or seen
Among the singers on the moving screen
The negroes are best ever heard or seen
Morton Downey went to a singing school
But the four Mills brothers are sweet and cool
And I aint got nobody, nobody cares for me
Nobody cares

For those of you have seen The Big Broadcast
Cab Calloway was unsurpassed
From mystery pictures Bela Lugosi
And relax with MrCrosby
Mae West, of course, is a fair piece singer
I still prefer to hear the Four Mills Brothers in
I aint got nobody, nobody cares for me
Nobody cares