The Four Mills Brothers

Van Dyke Parks

Among the singers on the moving screen The negroes are the best ever heard or seen Among the singers on the moving screen The negroes are best ever heard or seen Morton Downey went to a singing school But the four Mills brothers are sweet and cool And I aint got nobody, nobody cares for me Nobody cares

For those of you have seen The Big Broadcast Cab Calloway was unsurpassed From mystery pictures Bela Lugosi And relax with MrCrosby Mae West, of course, is a fair piece singer I still prefer to hear the Four Mills Brothers in I aint got nobody, nobody cares for me Nobody cares