

June

Van Hunt

Somber girl
You paint your fingernails blue
At the deep end of the pool
Waiting on June
Waiting on the colors to...

Bloom (You're an optimistic girl)
Smiling only inside
Why you so surprised
When summer dies?
Don't you know it will rise and rise again and...

June
There's no mystery surrounding you
You love everything about you
And until then you've got June gloom

Solemn girl
You're like the sound of the notes
As I am playing on my piano
Makes you weep on the snow
And wish the cold would go

Soon (You're a tragic figure)
Fighting until the end
I'm happy to be your boyfriend
And you're my whirlwind
Blowing in, blowing in...

June
There's no mystery surrounding you
You love everything about you
Until then, you've got June gloom
