

The Lowest 1 Of My Desires

Van Hunt

The first sign of weakness
Was when you walked by and I undressed
You only with my mind
But still a sign of trouble

The last gasp of greatness
Came when I knew I'd trade everything for this
Throw diamonds at your feet
Crawl on my hands and knees

The lowest 1 of my desires
Is the only one I need
The lowest 1 of my desires
Stays with me until it's pleased

I wanna fuck you, baby
I wanna touch and rub all over you, baby

The dying light in the east
Gives rise to my least
Now all the lines are blurred
You've got all power

The lowest 1 of my desires
Is the only one I need
The lowest 1 of my desires
Stays with me until it's pleased

I wanna fuck you good, baby
I wanna love like we never, ever should, baby

Jump on the ground and wrestle with my shame
Because I don't wanna hide behind anything
Now that I see the subtleties
Ends justify the means in seasons of need

I wanna fuck you, baby
I wanna climb inside and breathe with you, baby

I wanna fuck you, baby
I wanna love like we never, ever should, baby
