

Open the Door (To Your Heart)

Van Morrison

Open the door to your heart
Open the door to your soul
Get back in the flow
Open the door to your heart

Money doesn't make you fulfilled
Money's just to pay the bills
It's need not greed
Open the door to your heart

You've got eyes to see
And ears to hear
Then why don't you quit
Crying in your beer my dear

If nobody gets what they want
Tell me what's the use in that
Everybody just get's fat
Open the door to your heart

Backbiters always make mistakes
If you want to get an even break
Think of everything that's at stake
Open the door to your heart

Don't you think I know who my enemies are
Their slip is showing and the door is ajar
Well this time they pushed me too far
Open the door to your heart

If you've got eyes to see
And ears to hear
You better quit, quit
Crying in your beer my dear

If you can't hear the song you're wrong
I've been around too long
Just listen to the words that's all
Open the door to your heart
Open the door to your heart
Open the door to your soul
Got to get back in the flow
Open the door to your heart

Come on
Yeah, yeah, open the door to your heart
Open the door to your soul
Get back in the flow
Open the door to your heart

Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on

Open the door to your heart
Open the door to your soul
Got to get back in the flow now
Open the door to your heart

Come on, come on, come on, come on come on

Da, da-da, da da, da da-da da da

Open the door to your heart

Yeah, yeah
