

Letting Go

Vancouver Sleep Clinic

Oceans
Between us
Still you drag me deeper
You take me without warning

The angel in my memory
Or just the ghost I'm left with
You're everything I'd wanted

The time we spend
You're never there
I want to know the truth

Why won't you just let me in?
I want to be with you

And now I'm letting go
Of what I've never known
Wherever you are
I pray the wind will guide you home

And now I'm letting go
Of what I can't control
Wherever you are
Wherever you are
Keep me close to your heart

Playing with fire
You always took me higher
The flames could never light me

I can't keep holding on
