

Dream

Vanessa Amorosi

I'm dreaming, I'm dreaming

One week to another
Leaving the love of my life
Holding the hand of a stranger
Why does this feel right
So I fall in love with someone I just met
Still so very different from the men I've been with
So hard to get so close to

But I'll dream, I'll dream about it
Breakin'down these four walls
And entering his heart
So I'll dream, I'll dream about it
Doing the impossible
And entering his heart, his heart

Well I don't doubt this
More than willing to try
Sacrifice things forever
But you feel it ain't right
So you've been hurt once
Maybe been hurt twice
Was it a woman
Or were you packed on thru life
Given as much as I can give

But I'll dream, I'll dream about it
Breaking down these four walls
And entering his heart
So I'll dream, I'll dream about it
Doing the impossible
And entering his heart

I'm dreaming, I'm dreaming
I'm dreaming the impossible
And I'm dreaming, I'm dreaming
I'm dreaming to reality
I'm dreaming, I'm dreaming
I'm dreaming the impossible
And I'm dreaming, dreaming

I'm giving all of me
And in return you give me half
You say you got your problems
That you can't seem to sort out
Seems to be so pointless that I stay

But I'll dream
Yes I'll dream about it
Breaking down the walls
Dream, yeah
Entering his heart, his heart
