

Higher Ground

Vanessa Amorosi

Everyone tells me I'm makin a mistake good friends all warn me bout the care I should take nobody knows you the way I do nobody sees you through through my eyes

Ready to question each step we take so quick to challenge decisions we make chains on our hearts and our hands and feet desperate to keep us down

Climbing up to higher ground
higher ground
won't give up until we've found it
higher ground

Sometimes I just get so god damn tired weary of warnings and reasons why waves of an ocean that starts to rise slowly around us now

higher ground
somewhere on a distant mountain climbing up to higher ground
higher ground
far above and looking down from
higher ground

Climbing up to higher ground
higher ground
I can feel love all around us climbing up to higher ground
higher ground
far above and looking down from
higher ground
