

Somewhere in the Real World

Vanessa Amorosi

Love, sometimes pulls you down
Takes you on a world that's spinning
And won't let you out

Shame, a shame if you're scared
My grandma always said to me
You're better off in

And if you're running round
Try to avoid the downs
It will get you in the end

And if you think that none of that makes sense
That someday in the real world
We'd be loved
That someways if I'm real good
I'd be loved

Solo
Out there on your own
Tell me
Do you have somebody
To call home

Oh fighter,
Could you live without your hands
Would you fall
Would you still be a man

You go around try to avoid the downs
It will get you in the end

And if you think that it doesn't make sense
That someday in the real world
We'd be loved
That someways if I'm real good
I'd be loved

I'd be
I'd be
I'd be loved in the real world

That someday in the real world
We'd be loved
We'd be loved

That someways if I'm real good
I'd be loved
I'd be loved

You'd be loved
We'd be loved

Loved,
You'd be loved
We'd be loved

We'd be loved
