

Committed

Vanessa Hudgens

Before I knew
What I'd go through
You made me fall in love with you
Now I've been falling
And your not catching me
I'd let you go
Then take you back
I'm serious as a heart attack
I'm so crazy
Obviously, naturally

I should be committed
For being committed
To someone like you
Who makes me so blue
I should be arrested
For being obsessed with
Somebody like you

Your love is like a trial wave
Big an strong and misbehaved
Now I'm in it
I can't sink or swim
You come around at 2 am
And I unlock my door again
Call up Bellview
I'll be checking in

I should be committed
For being committed
To someone like you
Who makes me so blue
I should be arrested
For being obsessed with
Somebody like you

You're a diamond in the rough
And always will be
But that's just not enough
For the woman in me
If only heart was as smart
As this girls heas
It'd be so over now
It'd be so over now
