

I Was Thinking About Everytime

Vanessa Hudgens

You've always stood beside me,
And no matter what you say,
I will be here until forever.
So we'll join hands; here and now,
Embrace the future willingly,
And enter into tomorrow.

I was thinking about yesterday
And laughed as I remembered
The memories,
I was thinking about everytime,
Every moment we were together,
And even if I cry,
You'll still be here tomorrow.

Give me some understanding,
To help me walk this through,
Let me know you'll stay forever.
I was thinking about Everyday
When you were here beside me.

Another day gone,
And these words
Have been left unsaid,
I was thinking,
About everytime,
And every moment,
That they never were,
You can have them now.

I was thinking about yesterday
When I couldn't tell you,
I was thinking about tomorrow
When it might be too late
I was thinking about now,
And everytime I wanted to say,
I love you.

Hold me tight,
Don't let go
