

Crazy 'Bout You

Vanessa Williams

Someone asked me, about you
Asked me if this was love, are we serious
I kindly replied that I loved you
Don't know if I should be falling again

There's a part of me, still in misery
Though I know I got to move on
I'm scared of commitment
I'm scared of what could go wrong

'Cause if I love again, I could lose again
That's the chance that I'm gonna take
I can't be wrong again
Baby, 'cause I'm crazy 'bout you

It's gonna take me just a moment
To take this all the way it feels kind of strange
So what could you do to assure me
That you won't go astray and hurt me some day

So no promises, don't want roses
I've already heard every lie
And I ain't in no hurry and I hope you're not wasting my time
'Cause if I love again, I could lose again
That's a chance that my heart could break
Hate to be wrong again
Baby, 'cause I'm crazy 'bout you

If I hurt again and I cry again
That's a chance that I'm gonna take
I can't be wrong again
Baby, 'cause I'm crazy 'bout you

Starting over
Takes me under
I need your shoulder
When I can't bear this pain
I need your love
To help me make it alright
Don't need no one
Runnin' in and out of my life

If I love again, and I cry again
That's the chance that I'm gonna take
I can't be wrong again
Baby, 'cause I'm crazy 'bout you
