

Corner of My Mind

Vanilla Ninja

I can see a man
Walk away and hold his head
He won't turn around
And there is her mom
Lookin' desperate and sad
And night is slowly fallin' down

In a corner of my mind
I can feel the time rewind
A little girl who stands there cryin'
Her little hopes are dyin'
In a corner of my mind
Are the tears I left behind
Just memories of a stolen heaven
Gone away forever
Lots of dreams that once were mine
I can always find
In a corner of my mind

And that little girl
In a ragged yellow skirt
She looks very scared
Hears her mother says
Girl don't wanna see you hurt
He's gone, but he will always care

In a corner of my mind
I can feel the time rewind
A little girl who stands there cryin'
Her little hopes are dyin'
In a corner of my mind
Are the tears I left behind
Just memories of a stolen heaven
Gone away forever
Lots of dreams that once were mine
I can always find
In a corner of my mind

In a corner of my mind
I can feel the time rewind

Lots of dreams that once were mine
I can always find
In a corner of my mind

In a corner of my mind...

I can see a man
Walk away and hold his head
He's gone, but he will always care

In a corner of my mind
I can feel the time rewind
A little girl who stands there cryin'
Her little hopes are dyin'
In a corner of my mind
Are the tears I left behind

Just memories of a stolen heaven
Gone away forever
Lots of dreams that once were mine
I can always find
In a corner of my mind
