

I will close my eyes and hide my face.
I don't want this crowd to see, those tears that are running down my cheeks.
I'm too ashamed to show I'm weak, but after all I'm only a girl, a humanbeing who has a heart and I have the right to get emotional.

I will slam the doors,
or shout out loud.
I'm the one who walks out of here proud.
you're the one to lose,
you pathetic fool.
your words they bring me down, but that's all it does
you just pollute the air around me.
Disappear.

I will close my ears, I don't need to hear, what I am and what I'm not.
their not comfotaint to say such things, cuz they don't know me after all,
but in the end I'm still ahead,
I get to do just what I like.
the thought of this will bring back the smile on my face

I will slam the doors
or shout out loud
I'm the one who walks out of here proud
you're the one to lose
you pathetic fool
your words they pring me down, but that's all it does
you just pollute the air around me.
Disappear
