

I don't wanna wake up this way
I don't wanna hear what they say
Cause I'm feeling way too small
Will this rushing world hear my call?

I am just one person passing by
A million different windows in sight
Each one hides a life
Does anybody know where we go?

I pray - for someone to understand
Cause I'm lost inside this labyrinth
Of thoughts that never end
And I pray - as people pass me by
That they won't see the tears I cry
The tears I cry

I'm a prisoner with my own key
Don't we all just wish to be free?
Still we're waiting for the chance
Although we hold it right in our hands

I pray - for someone to understand
Cause I'm lost inside this labyrinth
Of thoughts that never end
And I pray - as people pass me by
That they won't see the tears I cry
Won't see the tears I cry

And I pray - for someone to understand
Cause I'm lost inside this labyrinth
Of thoughts that never end
And I pray - as people pass me by
That they won't see the tears I cry
