

Wherever

Vanilla Ninja

Wherever you may go
There's no escape
The memories in your soul
You can't reshape
Wherever you leave me
There's no forgiving
Cause you're guilty of deceit

Wherever you may hide
The flash of light I feel
Will you can find
And it will hurt you
Hurt you most every night
Whatever you may try
Shadows of your crimes
They won't go by
The nightmares will haunt you mine
You will find they'll never go

Wherever you may go
There's no escape
The memories in your soul
You can't reshape
Wherever you leave me
There's no forgiving
Cause you're guilty of deceit

Whatever you may do
There's no release
The pain deep down inside
Will never cease
Though you'll be lying
When you're crying
Cause you're heart is still repaid
Wherever you will be
You'll need your faith

Whenever you feel free
You'll find a bed
You got no chance to sleep
Remember only
Lonely
You know what you've done
Whatever you may say
You know you'll never
Wash your sins away
You will forever
Understand things
You're the one

Wherever you may go
There's no escape
In memorize it a soal
You can't reshape
Wherever you leave me
There's no forgiving
Cause you're guilty of decide

Whatever you may do
There's no release
Will never cease
Though you'll be lying
When you're crying
Wherever you will be

Wherever you leave me
There's no forgiving
Whatever you may do
There's no release
Will never cease
Though you'll be lying
When you're crying
Cause you're heart is still repaid
Wherever you will be
You'll need your faith
