

Falling Out

Vanilla Sky

I'm thoroughly faded out asking if I'd find the truth in what I'm doing sometimes your lips cut me like real blades will we ever find our compromise?

it's a brand new day on and on the same contradictions I'm falling off
we're on the verge of a falling out

I'm thoroughly drowning in my tears lost in the lies of my deepest fears do you remember what we were one year ago?
I think I'm giving up right now yes I'm giving up right now

falling out
falling out
falling out
