

Inner Conspiracy

Vanilla Sky

Hey! We're not even listening
We just keep on going through the motions
We've been standing around for eternity

Give me a god to pray!
I don't know what the hell I'd say
Every word seems so meaningless to me

Do you consider this liberty?
Cause it sounds like misery to me
Everyone I see is half asleep
When I look inside of me
It's a huge conspiracy
Ripping at my heart

Hey! Are we heading somewhere
Or are we just complaining?
We're just starting at all of this modernity

What more can I say?
This evolution has not explanation
Human race's what a perfect tragedy

Do you consider this liberty?
Cause it sounds like misery to me
Everyone I see is half asleep
When I look inside of me
There's a huge conspiracy
Ripping at my heart

Hey! Would you call this liberty?
Cause it sounds like misery to me
Everyone I see is half asleep
When I look inside of me
There's a huge conspiracy
Ripping at my heart
