Two Minds One Soul

Vanishing Point

I feel emotions are denied I hide through day to welcome night Just to get away from you

Is it me that you've decieved Now you drown in make believe I'm so far away from you

I know you can't see my face I know you wont change The way your outlook is to life The way you tend to speak my mind Many words I could describe You'll never know

I won't change Wont listen to these empty words again Past is shadows, covered cold Such indecision you have two minds in one soul

I could not see the shades of light You gave into the empty lies You could never face the truth

Blind before the facts you've known The picture now has turned to stone You have two minds in one soul
