

Black Bones

Vanna

Blessed with this curse curse of knowing
why I'm here who to step on and who to fear let me make myself clear hands stop me
and wind won't sway me they'll be the guide and forever take me lift me up to where I belong head high and moving on, and on and on one swift move and I'm out of your way
no rest for you here
no room here to stay stare at the face of determination gaze into perfection
I, won't be stopped
I, want the ground to give way
the horizon to break I, want the mountains removed swallow the sea with it too
I, want the ground to give way
the horizon to break
want the ground to give way
the horizon to break
want the mountains removed
swallow the sea with it too
I will consume you
forgiveness has all been used I will consume you
your future has been removed so please forgive me as I sing this song and with the slight of hand you'll be moving along oh don't get me wrong
did I leave you
broken and used
desperate now oh I confuse
this is the sound of taking control this is you and your letting go your presence here will not be missed you won't live through this I am I am the
I am
I am the end
you won't survive me
I am
I am the
I am
I am the end
I am
I am the
I am

I am the end
I am
I am the
I am
I am the end
