

Schadenfreude

Vanna

Schadenfreude :

Let's make this happen

Let's lay it all down now

You've been taken for granted

So let me show you around

You'll never see the light of day again

The walls were crawling, with your insides

The walls were crawling, with your insides

You'll never see the light of day again

Your heart was shining, like a chandelier

Your heart was shining, like a chandelier

They will never let you go

They will never let you go

They will never let you go

There's no escaping

You haven't the legs to stand on

There's no escaping

You haven't the legs to stand on

And I'm so thankful

That I'm not in your place

And I'm so thankful

That I'm not in your place

So that's what they call it these days
