Varius Manx

Close your eyes free your mind try to fill in your hobby stop to walk stop to talk let your soul leave your body

You don't need to hold the breath just forget about everything trust me now give me hand and follow me

Though god didn't give us even one of the wing i will teach you to fly i`ll teach you how to be free

Something is wrong with the world it's so hard to be happy every way is a form of maze everyone it's going crazy if you can't find yourself in a vicious circle trust me now give me hand and follow me

Though god didn't give us even one of the wing i will teach you to fly i'll teach you how to be free no, no, no

Stop to walk stop to talk let your soul leave your body trust me now give me hand and follow me...
