

Promises

Varius Manx

Here I am at your door golden northern wind drops trickling down my face it's late of night but you're far from sleep I'll kiss your fears, always

Let me stay until the dawn there's so many things you need to cry out it ain't not hard at all when you're not alone so let me in to you

Ooh baby don't cry then
ooh smile
ooh I'll wipe these tears away
let me heal your pain

I feel your wounds, a suffer too don't you know your pain is my despair let me hold you now I'll fold you in my arms won't let you be so blue

ooh smile
ooh I'll wipe these tears away
let me heal your pain

I want to be the one you need when you need someone to help you see it through when you're all alone, can't help to cry just say the word I'll come just say the word
