Jayk:

Winter's cold
Won't ever pass
Or ever let me be
Who woulda thought
That summer's rays
Would dim their light on me
You took your pride and walked away
Now I live in shades of gray so tell me how
How do I cope with
This hopelessness in me

Ref:

Cos its been 2 years, 2 days, and an hour of sadness
I Haven't moved on, cos baby I'm not past this
So long since we spoke on the phone
You went and left me all alone
All alone
(And now my) My heart, our love, has turned into ashes
When ya let it burn, the pain has taken my passion
No more sunny days
This phase has never change
Always feel the same
Because I haven't forgotten

David:

The bitterness
Of goodbye's kiss
Still lingers on my cheek
And though I try
To wipe it dry
I never find some peace of mind

Drew:

Cos you're still standing there
With your long brown hair
Smiling back at me, with those blue eyes
You used to be my girl
Why'd you have to leave?

Ref:

David:

Give me amnesia to help me forget
Give me some closure, like you don't exist
What you did to me

What you hid from me...
I remember everything
